By the QUEEN,

A PROCLAMATION.

ANNE R.

WHereas Our Parliament ſtands Prorogued to the Two and twentieth Day of this Inſtant October, We, with the Advice of Our Privy-Council, do hereby Publiſh and Declare, That the ſaid Parliament ſhall be further Prorogued, on the ſaid Two and twentieth Day of October, to Thurſday the Twenty firſt Day of November next enſuing. And We have given Order to Our Keeper of Our Great-Seal of England, to Prepare a Commiſſion for Proroguing the ſame accordingly. And We do hereby further Declare Our Pleaſure, That the ſaid Parliament ſhall, on the ſaid Twenty firſt Day of November, be Held and Sit for the Diſpatch of divers Weighty and Important Affairs. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes of the Houſe of Commons, are hereby Required and Commanded to give their Attendance accordingly at Weſtminſter, on the ſaid Twenty firſt Day of November next enſuing.

Given at Our Court at Kenſington the Twenty firſt Day of October, 1706. In the Fifth Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the QUEEN.

Genoa, October 14. N. S. The Dutcheſſes of Savoy embarked here the 11ſt paſt for Oneglia, two of the Gallies of this State being appointed to attend their Royal Highneſſes in their Paſſage thither; but the contrary Winds put them back to Savona, from whence they are gone by Land to Turin. The laſt Advices from the Confederate Army under the Command of the Duke of Savoy and Prince Eugene, are, That having taken Novara, and poſſeſſed themſelves of the City of Milan, they became Maſters likewiſe of Lodi, and the Country about it, and ſent part of their Forces to beſiege Pavia, which ſome Letters ſay has already ſurrendred.

Venice, Octob. 17. The Dutcheſs of Bavaria went from hence the 10th Inſtant by Sea to Ravenna, intending to proceed to France. The City of Modena continues block'd up by the Imperialiſts, and the Gariſon, being in want of many Neceſſaries will ſhortly be obliged to ſurrender. The Prince of Heſſe having left a Gariſon, of 500 Men at Revere, is marching with the Forces under his Command towards Guaſtalla. The Duke of Savoy has given Directions for the repairing the Fortifications of Verceil; in the doing of which, a conſiderable number of Workmen are continually employ'd. The French Forces under General Medavi are retired into Mantua, and the neighbouring Country: They have a ſtrong Gariſon in Cremona, which Place the Allies are Beſieging with the beſt part of their Army.

Vienna, Oct. 16. On Sunday the 10th Inſtant the Emperor was at our Cathedral, where Te Deum was Sung for the great Progreſſes of the Confederate Arms in Italy, a triple Diſcharge being made at the ſame time of all our Cannon. Letters from Hungary ſay, That General Rabutin has taken Calchau, one of the ſtrongeſt Places the Malecontents were poſſeſſed of; And that a Party of Imperialiſts has defeated one of 1000 Malecontents near Ebenau, having killed ſeveral of them, and taken many Priſoners.

Dreſden, October 22. The Deputies of the States of this Electorate preſented a Memorial to the King of Sweden the 11th Inſtant, ſetting forth their Inability to pay 625000 Dollars a Month, he requires by way of Contribution, and to pray his Majeſty to moderate that Demand. The 12th his Majeſty cauſed an Order to be publiſhed for his Army to obſerve a very ſtrict Diſcipline. Monſieur Broſſe, Aid de Camp to the King of Poland, arrived here lately from that Kingdom, being come by the Way of Berlin. He gives an Account of his Majeſty's having paſſed the Weiſſel near Petrovin, with his own and the Muſcovite Horſe and Dragoons, making together about 22000 Men, and about 10000 Coſſacks or Walachians; 68 Battalions of Muſcovite Foot would ſoon follow. The Swedes ſeem to apprehend his marching this way, and have already detached 8000 Horſe towards the Frontiers of Sileſia.

Hague, October 29. N. S. The Duke of Marlborough went the 27th Inſtant to Bruſſels, where he was received with all poſſible Demonſtrations of Joy and Reſpect. His Grace intends to return the 30th to the Army, which marched the 26th from Cambron, and now lies encamped with the Right at Ghillingen, and the Left within half a League of Enghien. The Enemy ſeemed to have a Deſign to attack the Rear as our Troops was paſſing the Rivulet of Cambron, but found them in ſo good Order, that they did not think fit to attempt it. Our Army, as is ſaid, will continue in the Field till the new Works at Courtray are perfected, which will not be before the 5th of next Month, and the Troops will then march to the Quarters aſſigned them. The States of Holland and Weſtfriſeland are aſſembled, and have under Conſideration the State of the War for the next Year, and the ſettling of Funds to raiſe the neceſſary Supplies for that Service. Two Yatchs, with ſeveral Merchant Ships, arrived in the Maeſe yeſterday from England. These are Letters from France, which ſay, their Army in Spain has taken Cuenca on the Borders of the Kingdoms of New Caſtile and Valentia, and that the Gariſon, conſiſting of Portugueſe, remained Priſoners of War: And that the Duke of Orleans was preparing to make an Attempt to return into Piedmont with the Remains of his Army; but his Troops are in ſo ill a Condition, and in ſuch want of all Neceſſaries, that it is very improbable he ſhould ſucceed.

Falmouth, October 19. The 15th came in here from cruiſing the Endraught, a Dutch Privateer, and ſailed again the next Day; as did alſo the Jealouſy Privateer, bound for Fluſhing: At the ſame time came in alſo 3 Veſſels of Bilboa, homeward bound for London. The 17th ſailed the Noſtra Seniora de Begona, of and from Bilboa, laden with Wooll and Iron for Amſterdam. The 18th ſailed hence the Hull Galley, of and from Amſterdam, and the Jacob Gally, both laden with Fiſh; as alſo the Sunderland with Corn; all 3 bound for the Streights. The ſame Day ſailed the 3 Veſſels above-mentioned for Biboa; and the Sarah of Cadiz, homeward bound from London. This Day ſailed the Queen Packet-Boat for Lisbon; as did likewiſe the Welfare, a Privateer, of Fluſhing, to cruize.

Plimouth, October 20. On the 17th Inſtant ſailed hence ſeveral of Her Majeſty's Ships to cruize. The 18th came in here a Ship of Bilboa, bound from thence to Amſterdam. Yeſterday and this Day paſſed by to the Weſtward 4 of Her Majeſty's Ships, with about 150 Merchant Ships under their Convoy, bound for Lisbon, and they were joined by about 30 Sail from hence; and by the Franckland Packet-Boat, bound for the Weſt-Indies. This Day came in here 12 or 14 Ships for Bilboa and Ireland; and 2 Coaſters from London, laden with Groceries; and the Jane Ketch of this Place, homeward bound from Rotterdam.

Dartmouth, October 20. The 18th Inſtant in the Evening came into our Road the Mary of Topſham, laden with Coals and Cordage from London for this Place. Yeſterday came into this Port the Unity of Haſtings, laden with Wheat for Lisbon, and another Veſſel with Wheat; as alſo 2 Hoys for Plimouth, one laden with Stores for the Gariſon, and the other with Grocery Goods; and a Pink bound for Barcelona: They all came from Spithead the 18th Inſtant, in Company of a Fleet of Merchant Ships, under Convoy of 3 of Her Majeſty's Ships, and were ſeparated from them the ſame night by bad Weather.

Portſmouth, October 22. The 18th Inſtant ſailed from Spithead a Fleet of Merchant Ships for Lisbon, under Convoy of ſeveral of Her Majeſty's Ships. The next Day arrived at Spithead 2 of Her Majeſty's Ships from the Eaſtward. At the ſame time came in here the Sorlings and Tartar-Pink. This Morning Sir John Leake ſtruck his Flag on board the Prince-George, and ſet out for London.

Kenſington, October 23. The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Brethren, and Capital Burgeſſes, and other Burgeſſes and Inhabitants, of the Borough of Derby, congratulating Her Majeſty upon the moſt Glorious and Happy Succeſſes of the Arms of Her Majeſty and Her Allies, and more eſpecially thoſe under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, has been preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord James Cavendiſh, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament: Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Weſtminſter, October 22. The Parliament met this Day, and was further prorogued to the 21ſt of the next Month.

His Royal Highneſs Prince George of Denmark, &c. Lord High Admiral of England, Ireland, &c. is pleaſed to direct, That all ſuch Seamen belonging to Her Majeſty's Ship the Chicheſter, Captain Coal Commander, as well thoſe removed from the Expedition, as the Weymouth, to ſerve in the ſaid Ship, as are in or about Town, do forthwith repair on Board her at Chatham, otherwiſe they will be taken up, and proſecuted as Deſerters from Her Majeſty's Service; the ſaid Seamen being to be paid their Wages before the Chicheſter ſails from the Nore.

By the Receiver-General for Prizes.

NOtice is hereby given, That the Officers and Company of Her Majeſty's Ship Kent will, on Thurſday the 24th Inſtant, be paid their Proportions of the Prize Goods taken in the Ships St. Ann, and Hope of Stockholme; according to the Directions in Her Majeſty's moſt Gracious Declaration for the Encouragement of Her Ships of War, &c.

The Court of Aſſiſtants of the Governor and Company for Making Hollow Sword-Blades in England do hereby give Notice, That a General Court of the Members of the ſaid Company will be held at their Houſe in Birchin-Lane, London, on Wedneſday the 30th Inſtant, at 10 in the Forenoon, on ſpecial Affairs.

Advertiſements.

LOſt the 22d Inſtant from the Rt. Hon. the Counteſs of Oxford's Houſe, a little tan'd Beagle Bitch, about 8 or 9 Inches high, long black Ears, much Red about the Head, White upon her Breaſt, and her four Feet tiped with White: Whoever brings her to my Lady Oxford's Porter in Duke-ſtreet, Weſtminſter, ſhall have 2 Guineas Reward.

LEft in a Hackney-Coach, on Sunday laſt was Sevenight, a Cane with Amber in the Head of it. If the Coachman, or any other Perſon will bring it to the Widow Bradſhaw's Coffe houſe near the Tenni-Court in the Cockpit at Whitehall, he ſhall have 5 s. Reward.
